

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Microscan Names Scott Summerville as New President

RENTON, WA, March 2011 – Microscan, a global technology leader in barcode, machine vision and lighting solutions, announces the appointment of Scott Summerville as President.

Summerville brings over 20 years experience in the automation industry to Microscan, having spent most of his professional career to date at Rockwell Automation. He spent 10 years with Rockwell in Asia, initially overseeing the company's marketing activities, eventually taking on responsibility for the Chinese market, and ultimately running the entire Asia Pacific region as President. Summerville most recently held the position of Vice President and General Manager, Public Safety Systems Division for Federal Signal Corporation.
